Directorate of Education

ORDER

DE/Acad. I/471/III/79/3273

The Goa, Daman and Diu Board of Secondary Education Act, 1975 has made a provision for the appointment of persons outside the Government Service, to the post of the Chairman, provided he possesses a IInd Class Master's Degree of a recognised University and teaching or administrative experience of not less than 20 years in the field of Education. The Government can, therefore, requisition the services of a non-Government Headmaster or teacher from the aided Secondary Schools fulfilling the qualifications for appointment to the said post. However, there is no provision in the Grant-in-Aid Code enabling the teacher so appointed to rejoin the school after expiry of the period of contract without any break in service and loss of other benefits. The Government, is, therefore, pleased to consider the whole issue in its perspective and to amend "Grant-in-Aid Code for Secondary Schools, Colleges, and other Educational Institutions except the Primary Schools" (hereinafter referred to as the "Said Code") as follows, namely: —

After Rule 79 of the said code, the following shall be inserted, namely: "Rule 79.A — Requisition by Government of services of an employee from non-Government Secondary Schools for Educational purposes —

The Government may requisition the services of an employee of any non-Government Secondary School for the purpose of utilising his services in statutory institutions connected with Education, established by the Government. The services of such an employee shall be governed by such terms of and conditions as may be mutually agreed between him and the Government and such service rendered by him in statutory institution will be considered as continuous service in the non-Government Secondary Schools and shall qualify for pension, leave and all other benefits that are in existence or that may be made applicable to the non-Government Secondary School employees from time to time. Such an employee shall be entitled to retain lien on his post in his parent institution during the period of his service with the Government. The Management of Non-Government Secondary Schools shall relieve such an employee when the services are so requisitioned by the Government."

This comes into force with immediate effect.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.
